Office of the Principal

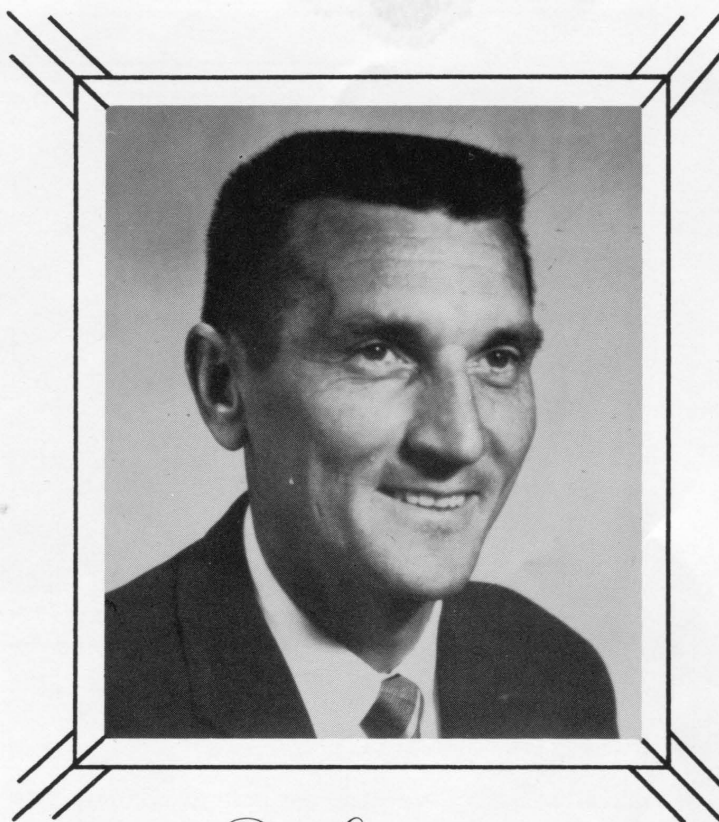

Principal's Message

Last June, as you, then Juniors, watched the Class of 1961 move out to become the Alumni of New Kent High School, your senior year stretched before you with the gift of Time. Now its close, culminating in your graduation, is upon you.

You, as have been the others, are unique; unique to your parents, to your teachers, and especially to me. You have made your own place in New Kent Elementary and New Kent High School and in my heart. And it is to you that I say, "Thank you for work well done, for your steadfast loyalty, for your friendship."

As you go out from our active nurture into much wider circles, I know that from the heart of all your teachers, as well as from mine comes the prayer for you:

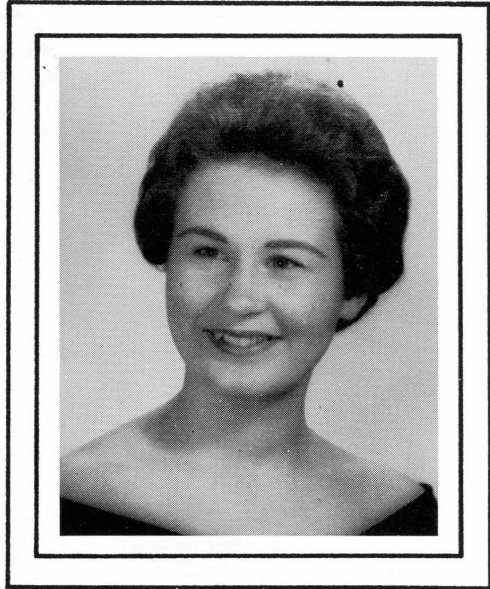

"The Lord bless thee and keep thee: The Lord make His face shine upon thee and be gracious unto thee: The Lord lift up his countenance upon thee and give thee peace."

Dedication

Not only because through our twelve years' schooling, he has been a source of our security by his firm discipline; has been our never failing friend and advisor; has been, is, and will be an inspiration to us by his absolute integrity; but also because of the simplest, yet deepest, motive - our love for him - we, the Class of 1962, dedicate our Cavalier to. . .

OSCAR SAWYER MEARS

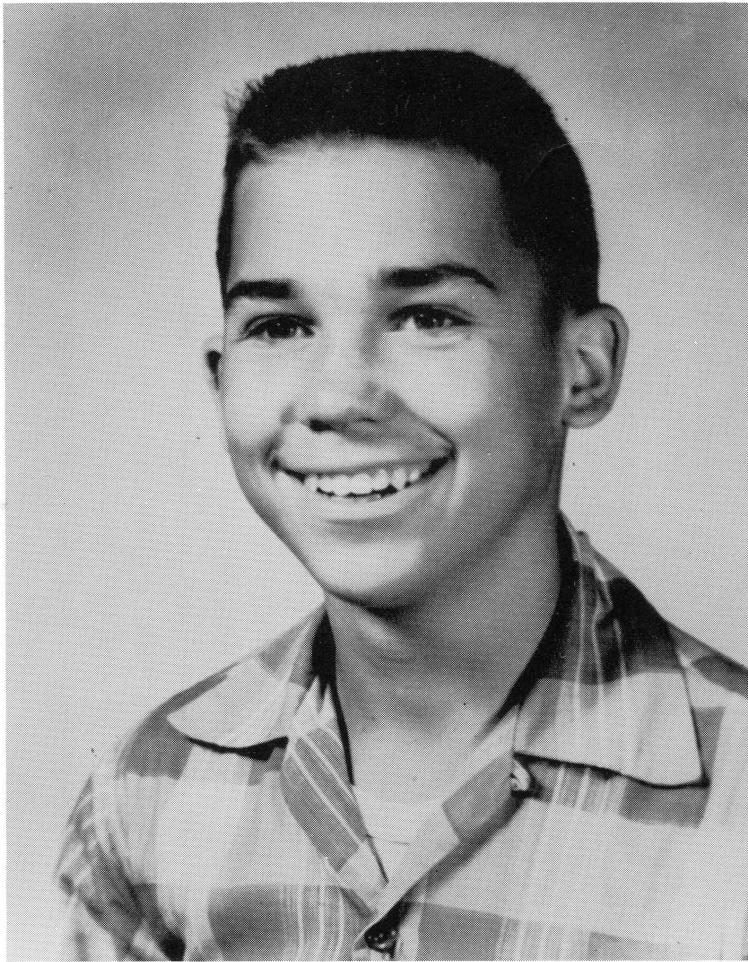

Foreword

We, the Cavalier staff, have done our best to compile this yearbook for your enjoyment. We sincerely hope that as you look back, years from now, on your days spent at New Kent, that this yearbook will serve as a happy reminder of the 1961-62 school year.

Speaking on behalf of the Senior class, we should like to thank our teachers, advisors, and other friends for having made these past twelve years enjoyable and profitable ones. We wish to each and every one of you the best that life has to offer.

I should like to express my thanks and appreciation to all those who have worked with the Cavalier this year.

Prophecy

It is the year 1982. Scene, the Mears Gymnasium. This is the reunion of the class of 1962. The gymnasium, which seats 5,000, is decorated with the theme "Hawaiian Holiday."

John Fedors and Edmond Turner are the authorities on the decorations. They have an engineering firm on Waikiki Beach and are presently engaged in building a bridge from Hawaii to the mainland.

Otis Timberlake and the former Bonnie Barfknecht have just arrived with their families. They are especially proud of the gym. Otis is the Boy's coach; Bonnie, the girl's.

On the stage, the world-renowned Barney Barnett and his Combo are warming up for some swinging music.

Coming in now are Wayne Sprouse and Sidney Philbates; they are both teachers at New Kent; they teach a special course on the "How's of Good Behavior." Photographer for this occasion is Joyce Martin, special photographer for the President of the United States.

A crowd seems to be arriving. It's the Dean girls - the former Deans. It seems that they all married the boys whom they were dating while in high school; they all have wonderful families.

Who is that coming in wearing a general's uniform? It's William Young! He is now a 5-star general. He never married, but continues to romance girls - on four continents instead of in four counties.

Not far behind comes head Postal Inspector of the FBI, Norman Batkins, with his lovely wife.

The former Jane King just arrived. She came from California, where she is teaching, just for this occasion.

After graduation Wanda Cobb went to New York and quickly became a famous model, with her picture on the covers of many magazines.

Frank McCreery is entering, looking a little upset - He's been having trouble with the pocket-sized TV set that he is inventing.

Our classmate Marilyn McCormich is coming in now with her husband. She married him after having been his secretary for only one year.

Just behind Marilyn comes David Zawodny and Robert Boroughs - the professed woman haters of the class. They are trappers in the Yukon.

Julia Philbates, living up to the character that she portrayed in the senior play, is now a very rich society matron.

Kerman Ward is in the corner arguing with his army buddy about which service is the better. Kerman is a Lieutenant Colonel in the Air Force.

Bettie Couch just arrived, wearing a very chic gown which she designed for one of the leading fashion houses.

James Ashley and his wife just came in. James is a Supreme Court Justice, specializing in judicial review.

On the floor dancing we find Frances Craft, who is now principal of Granby High in Norfolk.

Arriving among the last is Barbara Williams with her husband, a French designer, whom she met on a buying trip for Marshall Fields, Chicago.

The last of the class to arrive is Sharron Starkey. She is head of the psychology department at William and Mary. She had a late class.

The lights dim, the band begins playing, and voices coming from all directions are saying "Remember when . . .

History of the Class of 1962

Oh, no! It can't be! Marilyn!

Wanda! How are you?

I'm fine. It's so good to see you. It's been years!

Has it been? I suppose it has. When was the last time we saw each other?

Hmm. . . I think that it was after our graduation party. I had thought that graduation day would be the happiest day of my life, but when Mr. Mears said, "You are now the new alumni of New Kent High School," I nearly died - it was so sad.

Remember how all the girls cried!

We started and ended school the same way - CRYING.

Speaking of starting school. . . just think, there were forty of us then. Anyone could tell who was in the first grade when everyone was out on the playground - a lonely little tyke crying his heart out, "I don't like school; I wanta go home." The average rainfall of the state surely did rise that year.

Our attitude toward school changed under the motherly guidance of Mrs. Linkus, our second grade teacher. Learning how to write our names instead of printing them seemed to be a monumental accomplishment to us - all 48 of us.

Our first separation came in the third grade when our class became too large for one group. Mrs. Fisher and Mrs. Orange shared the privilege of introducing 52 of us into the mysteries of the multiplication tables.

I'm afraid that I wasn't as attentive as I should have been, for my fingers still play a large part in solving my math problems.

In the fourth grade under the capable tutelage of Miss Christian and Mrs. Hubbard, we were introduced to many new subjects. The study of the history of Virginia, which made us aware of the decisive part that our Commonwealth had played in the forming of our nation, made us proud at an early age that we are Virginians. We were introduced also to - Horrors! - SIX-WEEKS TESTS.

Good grief, remember the May Day in the fifth grade? Those crepe paper costumes in yellow, lilac, and green!

Yes, and later when the sun grew hot, the 46 lilac, green, and yellow little children.

Poor Mrs. Upp and Mrs. Taylor really had their problems trying to instruct the anxious mothers how to remove the dye from the skin and not the skin from the children!

We gave our sixth grade teachers, Mrs. Robbins and Mrs. Taylor, surprise parties. We invaded Jamestown on our class trip - boy, was that a blast! It has never recovered from the 49 strong onslaught.

The seventh grade was a busy year. The Honor Roll was started. We elected class officers for the first time - Bonnie Barfknecht was President. We gave Mrs. Fisher a surprise party which was fun. The class launched a 46 man attack on Williamsburg. But, the biggest occasion of all was our graduation from New Kent Elementary.

The eighth grade - remember those science, history, and math classes?

You must be kidding - who could forget them?

I think that the thirty-seven of us were Mr. Mears' favorite class.

I think so, too. He surely was in our room practically every day.

Yes, I remember. . . no trip, no popsicles, no privileges. . .

You, Wanda, represented us in the May Court and our class officers were: President, Sharron Starkey; Vice-President, Russ Parker; Secretary, Ruth Dean; Treasurer, Marsha Dean; and Reporter, Barbara Williams.

We were good in the ninth grade.

We were???

Sure, we didn't have anything taken away from us.

I suppose we had grown up a bit during the summer.

We were then in high school, busy with many new subjects, teachers, and changing classes.

The class officers representing us were: Barbara Williams, Pres.; Norman Batkins, Vice-President; James Ashley, Secretary; John Fedors, Treasurer; Edmond Turner, Reporter; and David Roberts, S.C.A Rep., Jane King was our May Court representative.

With Edmond Turner, President; Vice-President, Ruth Dean; Secretary, John Fedors; Treasurer, James Ashley; Reporter, Frances Craft; Otis Timberlake, S.C.A. Rep., and Ruth Dean, May Court representative, all 26 of us made it through the tenth grade.

Who can ever forget our Junior year - Goldent Crumbles (Ugh!), the Spaghetti Supper, "Dear Diary," and the Junior-Senior Prom.

You know it was months before I ate spaghetti after that!

Our class officers were: Jane King, President; Edmond Turner, Vice-President; Barbara Williams, Secretary; Sharron Starkey, Treasurer; and Ruth Dean, S.C.A. representative, and Mable Dean represented us in May Day.

Good old Senior year - man, that was a year and a half, wasn't it?

You said it! Remember "It's Great to be Crazy," our Senior Play?

Yes, we were all so frightened the night of the play.

That year our class officers were: John Fedors, President; Edmond Turner, Vice-President; Lewis Barnette, Secretary; James Ashley, Treasurer; Billy Young, Reporter; Barbara Williams, S.C.A. Representative.

And how all 26 of us dreamed about our trip to New York.

Everyone was so proud of our boys winning the district championship again that year.

May Day was certainly a day to remember thanks to the planning and preparation of Mrs. Charles Roberts and all the students and teachers who worked so diligently. Jane King was our May Queen, and Wanda Cobb was Maid of Honor.

In retrospect, all our school years were wonderful, due to our parents, faculty, and friends.

Oh, my lands! It's five o'clock. I'll have to race to make the bus. It's been wonderful seeing you again.

Let's meet sometime for lunch.

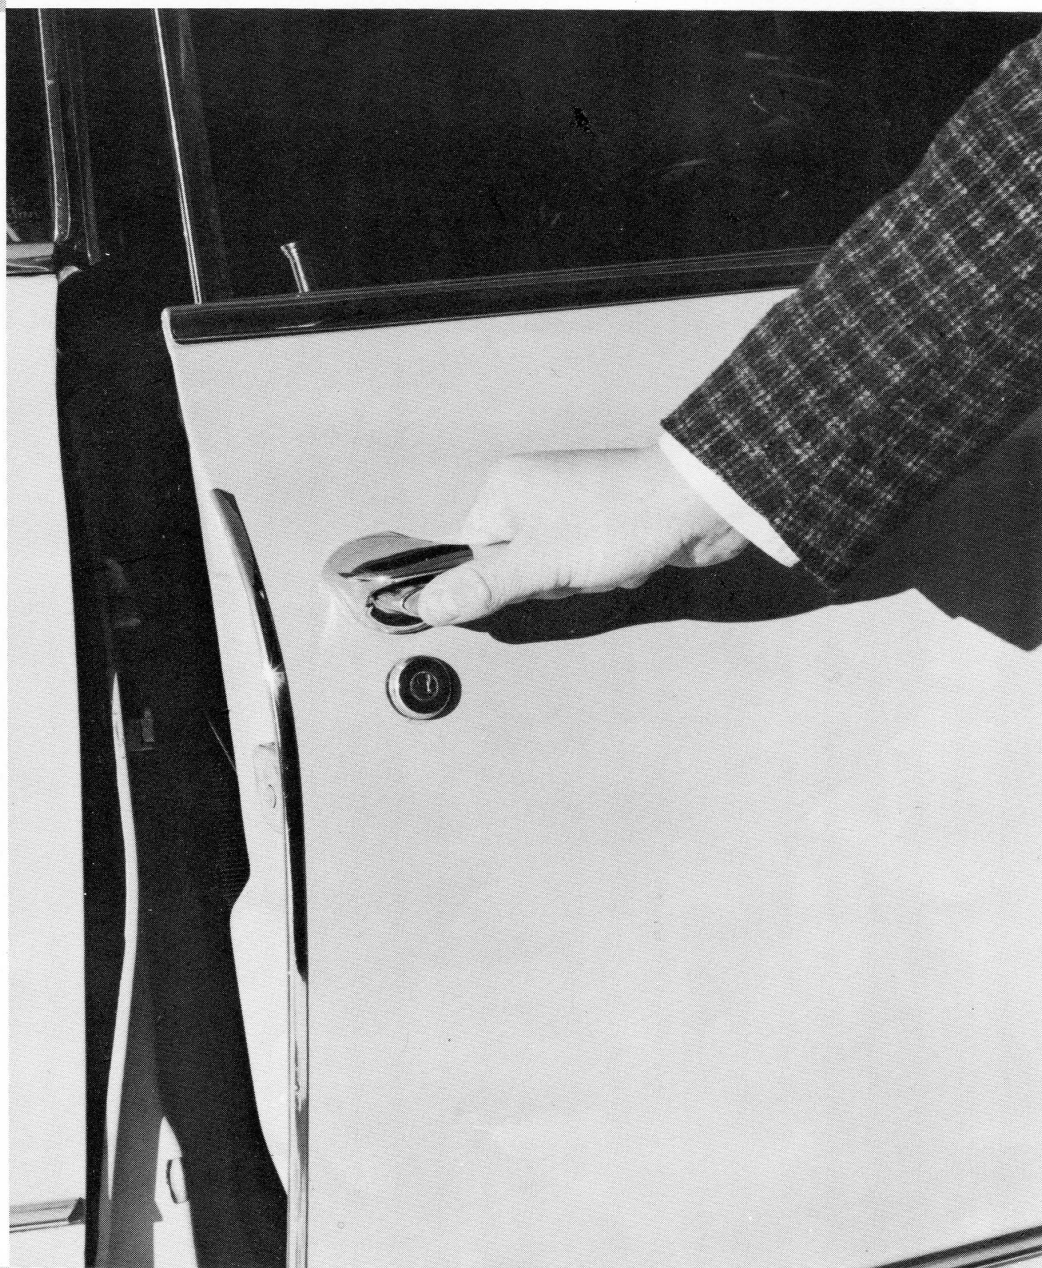

Oh, fine. Bye 'till then.

Last Will and Testament

In the 31st year of our school, New Kent High School, we the members of the Senior class of nineteen-hundred and sixty-two, do hereby make and declare this to be our Last Will and Testament, revoking any and all others previously thought up.

- I, James Ashley, leave my love for dancing to Carrol Kelly.
- I, Bonnie Barfknecht, leave my ability to "yell my head off" at games to Ethel Timberlake.
- I, Peggy Dean, leave my love for Gloucester to Dorothy Kirby.
- I, Barbara Williams, leave my ability to spend most of my time in a fog to anyone with his head in the clouds.
- I, Wayne Sprouse, leave my best wishes to any Junior who needs them.
- I, Bettie Couch, leave my love for washing dishes to Susan Lindsay.
- I, Julia Philbates, leave my quietness to Natalie Gregory.
- I, Mable Dean, leave my love for carpenters to Jo Ann Dean.
- I, Frank McCreery, leave bus Number 26 and all its troubles to whoever wants them.
- I, Sharron Starkey, leave my poetic ability.
- I, Marilyn McCormick, leave my love for taking up money at the games to anyone who wants to freeze.
- I, John Fedors, leave my love for Fords to Mary Lou Hannabass.
- I, Edmond Turner, leave my ability to sneak off to Middlesex with John to Natalie Gregory.
- I, Jane King, leave my love for dachshunds to Gloria Couch.
- I, David Zawodny, leave to anyone who can do it, my ability to find holes in the football line.
- I, Sidney Philbates, leave my ability to be quiet to Jimmy Davis.
- I, Lewis Barnett, leave my love of covered wagons to Susie Hannabass.
- I, Frances Craft, leave my love for cheerleading to Beckie Barfknecht.
- I, Wanda Cobb, leave my ability to roll my eyes and bat my eye lashes to Natalie Gregory.
- I, Ruth Dean, leave my ability to get along so well with my Romeo to Diane Adams.
- I, Robert Boroughs, leave my name "Snake" to anyone who is good enough to live up to it.
- I, Otis Timberlake, leave my ability to make noise in Study Hall to Mrs. Dalrymple.
- I, William Young, leave my reputation as Senior class Casinova to Avril Seabolt.
- I, Norman Batkins, leave my place on the squad to Terry Lee Batkins.
- I, Kerman Ward, leave my love for football to Eddie Allen.
- I, Joyce Martin, leave my ability to confuse bookkeeping figures to anyone who can.

Paper and Careers for the future

TODAY there are more than 100,000 different uses for paper . . . and the search for new uses never ends. That is why this fast-growing industry is now the fifth largest in the country . . . and why it needs trained researchers and technicians for future growth.

Our company, a pioneer kraft manufacturer, joins with other mills in sponsoring college scholarships in paper technology. It also offers scholarships for study in a subject of the student's choice. For information, write: Public Relations Department —
